Mays Suspended; Schang Draws Fine

ST. LOUIS, May 25.-Carl Mays, star pitcher of the Yankees, has been indefinitely suspended for his altercation with Umpire Ollie Chill in yesterday's game with the Browns, according to an order received to-day from Ban Johnson, president of the American League. Catcher Wallie Schang has been fined $25 for the same offense.

ST. LOUIS, May 25 .- Although "Babe" Ruth emerged from his hitting slump and crashed out his thirteenth home run of the season, the Yankees lost to the Browns at Sportsman's Park this afternoon in the final game of the series. The score was 7 to 6.

game of the series. The score was 7 to With the game apparently won, the Yankees allowed the Browns to come from behind and take the contest in a heart-breaking finish. Jack Quinn made a wild pitch with the bases falted in the ninth, and Williams scampered home with the deciding tally.

For six frames the Browns had held forth in the lead, but in the sixth the Yankees got into the game and put over three counters. In the seventh, with two on bases, Ruth hit the ball into the center field bleachers. It was a terrific whack, and easily the longest ever made here. It catapulted the Yanks into the lead for a while, but only for a while, as in the ninth the Browns came back.

Loose Playing by Hugmen

Loose Playing by Hugmen
Loose playing once more was the cause of the undeing of the Hugmen. They clouted Urban Shocker often and with sufficient force to take the ball game, but one can't win and make damaging errors at the same time. Alex Ferguson started for New York, but was derricked in the seventh, after Tobin had hit for a home run and Gerber doubled to left.

Johnny Mitchell took up the game right where he left off yesterday and spotted the Browns to a brace of runs right off the reel. Johnny set right to work in the first inning. Tobin rolled one down to him, and Mitchell not only cuffed the ball but threw it wide of the bag. Tobin going to second. Gerber sacrificed, Ward to Pipp. Tobin moving to third.

Sisler walked on four wide serves, fellowing which Willjams flied to Meusel, Sisler taking second on the throw home. Severeid relled to Mitchell, who fumbled, and Sisler scored.

Shocker tried Hawks on four sorts of balls in the second, but none of them found favor with the Calgary Kid, and he toddled down to first, but two hands were out, and Tobin took in Ward's fly to short right. Schang opened the third with a base on balls, but perished at first. Babe opened the fourth with a double, but was out trying for third on Meusel's grounder to Gerber.

Another Brace of Runs Loose Playing by Hugmen

Another Brace of Runs

Another Brace of Runs

The first hit of the game was made in the third inning, when Gerber doubled to left. Nothing came of it, between, for there was one hand out at the time and the two following batters flied cut easily. In the fifth the Browns put a brace of runs over the plate. With one down, Tobin singled and Gerber flied to Hawks. Successive passes to Sisler and Williams filled the bases and Severeid crashed to left for a single, scoring Tobin and Sisler. Smith flied out.

The Yankees did a bit of rallying in the sixth inning and scored three runs before they were retired. Mitchell beat out an infield rap, but the next two batters were out. Waller Pipp then beat a roller to Gerber and by fine speed won the decision over the throw. Meusel's double scor Mitchell putting Pipp on third, Chick Hawks came through likemajor with a single to center scor.

end to the hitting and scoring for that inning.

The Yankees had chances in both the eighth and ninth innings, but could not go through. Meusel made a base hit in the eighth and got as far as third before the side was retired. In the ninth Mitchell got his third hit, but was forced out by Peck. Ruth was hit by a pitched ball and Pipp flied to left. Ruth roamed half why to third before he discovered that there was only one out. All the time that he was forget fing the Browns were remembering, and ting the Browns were remembering, and "Babe" was doubled, Williams to Gleason to Sisler.

The Browns won the game in the ninth inning, and once they started they made swift work of it all. With two out Sisler singled to left and Williams tripled to right, tying the score. Severeid and Smith were both passed, filling the bases, and then Quinn made a wild pitch, scoring Williams with the

Three Navy Crews Leave To-day for Henley Meet

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 25. — The Naval Academy rowing party will leave to-morrow morning for Philadelphia in order to take part in the Henleys. Varsity, junior and plebe crews will row in the proper class. Lieutenant Commander F. W. Rockwell will be in command of the party and the oarsmen will be under the direct charge of Coach Glendon.

Since Bolles, stroke of the second boat, was moved to No. 2 in the varsity, the former third crew has been beating it quite regularly, and it may row in the junior event.

Champion Dodgers these last few days furnished the occasion for much criticism from the wild and unruly Flatbushers and from those who speak "figuratively."

The Giants, despite somewhat wabbly pitching, managed to turn back these Mid-West invaders to the tune of ten games won and only four lost. In the opening series with the St. Louis Cardinals the MsGraw men, after losing the first encounter, rallied to the extent of taking three games in a row from the "Branch Rickeys." This spurt of victory was followed by a clean sweep over the ex-world champion Reds. Johnny Evers and his Cubs fought so nobly and so well against the home lads that they succeeded in breaking even in their little four-game series. Champion, to Row
